Immortality of Man," Sunday Prather will preach on "Bringing to the Cross." Your presence is cordially solicited.In this issue appears the formal announcement of John R.

Smith who is a candidate for the nomination for the office of Jailer subject to the Democratic primary in February. Mr.
Smith has served the people in the capacity of jailer for several years and has received so much on a record against which there can be no just cause for complaint. Mr. Smith has a large acquaintance and a host of friends throughout the county who assure him they will rally to his support in his race for the nomination.Mr. G. A. Dobony of the Beckland neighborhood has lot of feeding cattle which he recently brought in Louisville among which a disease has broken out that has reached so far in six days. Mr. Dobony reported for Dr. Eissman State Veterinary who came out Tuesday and after an examination pronounced the trouble to be the Texas fever. The cattle were bought at the Bon-ton Stock yards of Louisville and the commission people there say that they came from Texas.
The disease is caused by ticks and is infectious. Cold weather it is said however effectually stops its spread, and consequently there is no fear of an epidemic among the cattle of the neighborhood.The Marion Stock Co. of Louiville composed of young people, members of a dramatic club played at the Opera House last Thursday evening to a fair-sized audience. "A Royal Ransom," a comedy adapted in fancy situations and affording plenty opportunity for acting. The performance on the whole was quite pleasing and while the play dragged a little at the times owing probably to the fact that some were not entirely familiar with their parts, yet the audience seemed to appreciate an honest effort. The dramatic club is composed of some clever and pleasant young people and quite a number of members of the club who were not in the play accompanied them out. Mr.
Dawson who is a semi-professional gave some black face specialties between the acts that was not really bad.

Beware Your Bowels With Care.

The Williams Lyceum Comedy Co. showing at the Opera House is delighting the audience which have gathered there nightly. The company contains some clever people and the singing, dancing and other specialties given each night are features. An entire change of program is given at every performance and the plays are all good. The company travels in its own special car and everywhere they have appeared have been well received. Several of the company are first class comedians and the dancing and singing is of a high order. A special Thanksgiving matinee will be given this afternoon and performances on tonight and Friday night. With the low prices 30, 20 and 10 cents the show deserves packed houses at each performance.Hon. John W. Lewis returned last week from Greensburg where he had been to attend the funeral of his brother Henry E.
Lewis, an account of whose death we published last week.
It seems that in the press notices of the sudden death of Mr. Lewis at Vanceburg the impression was made that there was something mysterious about it, but further particulars indicate that the death was due to perfectly natural causes. The deceased had complained of being ill before he retired that evening and had a friend to occupy the room with him. During the night Mr.
Lewis became so restless that his friend gave him a dose of brandy of potassium. The result that he apparently rested easy but in the morning he was found to be in an unconscious condition and physicians were summoned but were unable to arouse the patient who died in a short while. The coroner and physicians agreed that the death was due to apoplexy. The deceased was well and favorably known at this place.

Court Day.

Owing to the very disagreeable weather the crowd in town on Monday last was small. There was a good deal of stock on the market but buyers were scarce and prices ruled low. Col. R. E.
Whayne the hawking auctioneer reports the following sales: Seven short yearling steers at $24.10 per head; one cow and calf $25.50; three yearling steers at $17.05, one dry cow $19.50; one mitch cow $25.40; two calves at $10.05 each, one fat cow $10.
$13.10; one cow $25.50, one jon not and jack calf $55.55.

Death of Marion Brady.

Mr. Marion Brady an old and highly respected citizen of the county whose home was in the Texas neighborhood died on last Thursday morning after a long illness of cancer of the stomach.
The deceased was about 64 years of age and leaves a wife and eight children. Below we publish a tribute passed by the G.
A. R., post which gives some particulars of his life:

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of Grand Army Post No. 215 of Springfield Kentucky, November 26 1901 the death of Comrade Marion Brady being suggested a committee was appointed who reported the following tribute of respect to his memory, which was unanimously adopted:Whereas, We have learned with sorrow the death of our late Comrade Marion Brady, late of Company A, 5th Ky.
Cavalry, and while bowing humbly and submissively to the will of Divine Providence, we regret and mourn his death, obeying the divine injunction to "rejoice in those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep."Our Comrade Marion Brady was born in Washington county Ky., in November 1836, where he lived until September 1861, when he enlisted in the Federal army. Soon after his enlistment he was appointed Orderly sergeant of Company A, 5th Ky.
Cavalry which position he held with credit to himself and great satisfaction to the officers and soldiers with whom he served until June 1862, at which time in a fight between the 5th Ky.
Federal Cavalry and the 1st Ky.
Confederate Cavalry, he with many others was badly wounded and his comrades feared at the time that he was mortally wounded as two shots entered his side not more than four inches apart and the Surgeon was unable to locate them from which wound he never entirely recovered, by reason ofaail wound he was some time after discharged from the army and we believe said wounds shortened his life. On Comrade Brady's death it was at the time of his death a devoted and consistent member of the Baptist Church for more than 25 years, proving by his works to have been a faithful soldier of his country, and a faithful soldier of the cross. He was a kind father and affectionate husband, and cause as near as any man to obeying the injunction "love thy neighbor as thyself." We now as members of Grand Army Post No. 215 of which he was a member, tender this tribute of respect and sympathy to his beloved family and friends, hoping that they and we will finally meet on that eternal shore where weeping and sorrow is no more where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest. Submitted most respectfully.THOMAS HICKEY
S. P. TURNER
J. L. WHARTON,
Committee.

Recommend It to Trainees.

been troubled a great deal with backlieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends, the train men, who are usually afflicted," allowing a cough or cold to develop into an infallible remedy for a cough
